BOARD HEARS FIGHT OVER WATER RATES

East Bay Company Presents Application for Increase to Railroad Commission; Earnings Too Small, Is Claim

Move to Be Vigorously Opposed by Representative Organizations; Stock Deal Is Charged by City Attorney

In the presence of the city attorneys of the East Bay cities and of representatives of citizens' consumers' and taxpayers' organizations, the case of the application of the East Bay Water Company for an increase in rates opened today in the City Council chambers before Commissioners Irving Martin and Stanley Benedict of the State Railroad Commission.

By agreement, the water company was permitted to submit its facts and figures first and give its testimony, after which there will be an adjournment while both sides discuss the water company's arguments.

The case of the company was submitted in a statement by President Edwin O. Edgerton of the water company, and a statistical analysis by Chester H. Loveland, engineer.

EARNINGS SMALL, IS COMPANY'S PLEA.

The company, according to its attorney, Arthur Tashjian, contends that all rates are based on values and that the company "has not made sufficient earnings on even the lowest opening."

Edgerton produced a lengthy statement, analyzing the recent history of the company, financial and otherwise. Among other things, he said:

"Based on the lowest estimate of value of used and useful property, and eliminating approximately $200,000 worth of land, the company is entitled to over 20 per cent increase in rates, but the company will ask for less than 10 per cent at this time."

"We shall show that the present rates charged consumers are low and in no degree burdensome, and that a reasonable increase of these rates would not result in any degree in excessive charges to the people."

SURCHARGE MAY BE MAINTAINED.

As for the much-discussed "surcharge," which was granted the company during war times as a direct means of making a return on its investment during a time of exceedingly high labor and materials costs, Edgerton asserted that the conditions were hoped to eliminate this surcharge have not been realized. He said:

"The present charges include a 10 per cent surcharge, which was authorized through an order of the commission dated October 11, 1919, W. E. Creed, then president of the company, expressed the hope that within one year conditions would be such as to make it possible to eliminate this surcharge."

STOCK DEAL IS.

ATTORNEY'S CHARGE.

It was agreed at the start of the hearing that there shall be no cross-examination. The company made its statement, submitted its engineering and statistical report, and took testimony from witnesses, with the city attorneys and consumers' representatives as interested hearers.

The battle of the East Bay cities, backed up by the statistics of Engineers R. W. Hawley and Ralph Beebe, will be centered on the stock transaction of the water company, according to City Attorney's Lead Gray's consistent statement since the stock deal is.

DEBT CANCELLATION IS DENIED BY U. S.

BY LAWRENCE MARTIN, United Press Staff Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Emphatic denial that the United States is considering cancellation of any part of the European war debt was made today following the despatches from Paris and London to the effect that 50 per cent of the money owed the United States might be marked off.

An official told the United Press that repeated efforts have been made by some foreign delegations to raise the debt question, unsuccessfully. So far as the United States is concerned, this official said, the conference will be limited to matters for which it was called.

U. S. Policy Toward Russia Is Unchanged

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—The policy of the American government toward Soviet Russia, which involves non-recognition of and no dealings with the present regime, remains unchanged. Secretary Hoover said today:

"By indirection, it may be that the company is now pledged to put up a battle to bring earnings on that Class B stock and make it worth something. The city attorneys of the East Bay cities will concentrate on the consummation of a trade agreement with the United States and Russia."

Canadian Beer Is Seized at Toledo

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.

TOLEDO, O. Nov. 28.—Nearly 3000 quart bottles of Canadian nine cent beer were confiscated by police and prohibition enforcement officers here. A lake-going yacht also was seized, together with an automobile said by the police to belong to George Dittman, an alleged tax runner. The crew escaped.

Dittman was arrested later and held without bail.

Supervisors in Certifying Returns Point Out That Margin of Qualified Voters in City Is Lacking

COURT ACTION HELD LIKELY

After a week of legal scrutiny of the results of the recent election, in view of the enabling act clause which provides that a "majority of the qualified electors" must favor the proposition in the essential city, the Board of Supervisors today, in certifying to the count of the election, made it plain that such a majority was not given in Oakland.

The district attorney's office, which must defend the certification if it is to stand, gave the enabling act and the returns a careful study in light of court decisions and precedent. It was found that there were decisions that "qualified electors," in some instances, might mean those who voted, and other decisions that hold that the words speak for themselves and leave no room for doubt. Lawyers declare there were more decisions as to the latter meaning for the former.

The certification of the Board of Supervisors, which has been turned over to Leon Clark, chairman of the Board of Freeholders, reads:

"The board finds and certifies as follows: That the said proposal did not receive a majority of the votes cast or a favorable vote of the majority of the electors of any of the cities and towns within the county of Alameda, exclusive of the city of Oakland, and in the city of Oakland did receive the favorable vote of a majority of the electors voting on such proposal, but did not receive a favorable vote of a majority of the electors in said city of Oakland."

EIGHT ROBBERIES LAID TO QUINTET

"White Stocking Bandits" Are Said by Police to Have Confessed.

The police announced today that the five men in custody at Richmond are responsible for six spectacular hold-ups and two or more burglaries that have mystified the authorities many weeks. The places which the robbers are charged with having held up are:

Daisy Farm Inn, Sullivan's residence.

The Six Bells Inn, Lafayette Hotel.

East Richmond Hotel, Al Moore's residence.

And the home of James Vander Zee, in outer San Pablo avenue, and James N. Long at Richmond.

William Fergus, Alf Moltza, Fred Lewis, and Charles F. Lewis, all of Richmond, and Lewis and Cole, both still carry in their right thighs lists of birds which were fired at them when they were robbing the patrons and owners of the Daisy Farm Inn. Lewis and Cole did not seek medical aid for their wounds, but remained in seclusion in a Richmond house.

WIFE OF ONE MAN MAY BE IN COURE.

The automobile in which they traveled to the Daisy Farm Inn hold-up, according to the police, was stolen in Berkeley.

The stolen articles recovered by the police are said to include three diamond rings and a diamond pendant valued at $1200.

Mrs. Fred Lewis, wife of one of the men in custody, it was announced in court where the five are arraigned in Richmond. No confirmation of this could be obtained, however, at the office of Sheriff Frank Barnet.

BOARD'S COMPLETE CERTIFICATION GIVEN.

The complete certification of the supervisors to the election follows:

"Whereas, it appears after a canvass of the votes by the Board of Supervisors of the county of Alameda, State of California, that the proposal submitted at the special election held on the 15th day of November, 1921, in accordance with the resolution of this board calling said election, to which reference is hereby made, that the election was held in a manner so favorable to all of the incorporated cities and towns within the county, and the proposal did provide the alternative that a lesser area than the whole county, but not less than the city of Oakland, which was designated and set forth in the proposal as necessary and essential to effect consolidation, and in which a favorable vote must be based, may form and establish a consolidated city and county of Alameda."

"Now, therefore, after said canvass of said votes the board hereby finds and certifies as follows:

"That the said proposal did not receive a majority of the votes cast or a favorable vote of the majority of the electors of any of the cities and towns within the said county of Alameda, exclusive of the city of Oakland, and in the city of Oakland did receive the favorable vote of a majority of the electors voting on such proposal, but did not receive a favorable vote of a majority of the electors of and in said city of Oakland."

ARBUCKLE ON GRILL TELLS OF S. F. PARTY

Actor Shows Heat in Replies to Prosecutor Brady; Denies Using Force to Compel Miss Rappe to Enter Room

Young Woman Found Wriggling on Floor of Bathroom. Says Actor: Many of His Guests Unbidden. He Says

BY UNITED PRESS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle today became his own star witness in his trial for alleged manslaughter growing out of the death of Virginia Rappe, following his now famous "Labor Day party."

The big comedian testified in a clear, deep-toned, pleasant voice, showing irritation now and then. He said:

"He found Miss Rappe kneeling on the floor of the bathroom adjoining his room in St. Francis hotel suite, and that he picked her up and held her so as to relieve her nausea, if possible.

But he then carried her to his bed to help for help."

The woman had returned Miss Rappe was leaning off her own clothes and he said to her, "If you want your waist off, I'll help you," and then told "the girls" to prevent her from dressing.

That he left the room and when he returned Mrs. Hammie Maud Delmont, the complaining witness, was rubbing Miss Rappe's then nude body with ice.

Arbuckle denied that he had either tortured Miss Rappe with a bit of ice or that he had told Al Semnacher that he had done so, as Semnacher had testified previously.

"I can't keep track of that man Semnacher," he said.

TESTIMONY STORY OF ABUSED HOST.

Arbuckle's entire evidence painted him as a jolly good fellow who was imposed upon by a party of strangers who helped themselves to his hospitality, and whom he would not desert because it would be bad manners. He clearly pictured himself as victim of circumstances who attempted to play the Good Samaritan to Miss Rappe, and when he aided her, found the first of accusation pointing toward him.

Arbuckle's testimony created a great sensation in the courtroom. Spectators watched his every movement and hung on every word.

14 WERE ARRESTED IN DRY RAID IN S. F.

The six men and eight women students were taken into custody last night by the federal officers when they raided a place on Mason street, San Francisco.

The proprietors of the place where the students were discovered as a result of the raid, Joseph Rodriguez and his wife, 1550 Mason street, were charged with violation of the national prohibition.

The raid on the Mason street resort, which has been known as the Espanol club, came after a 17-year old university student, a girl, furnished the university and prohibition enforcement officers with information. She is said to have reported that she went to the place with a party of students who promised her a "rare treat."

"COLLEGE TRADE" AT CLUB IS REPORTED.

It is further alleged that the "club" was stocked with wines and choice liquors valued at more than $5000, and that a large part of its business was "college trade." On the night after the San Francisco raid, close to $2000 was taken in by the proprietors, according to Henry W. Meyer, agent in charge of the raid.

Two of the girls taken are said to be sisters and two of the men are said to have given addresses of prominent fraternity houses in Berkeley. When the prohibition agents entered the place, according to Meyer, the party tried to hide the liquor, but enough evidence was seized.

At the university today, there is much speculation as to the personnel of the party, and the prediction is made that when the president's action comes, if the charges hold, it will be in the form of expulsion of the entire fourteen from college.

In conclusion, the brief, which was prepared by Gavin McNab and Nat Schmulowitz of San Francisco, now engaged in trying the Arbuckle case, set forth that the case "is without precedent in jurisprudence."

"Now, therefore, after said canvass of said votes the board hereby finds and certifies as follows:

"That the said proposal did not receive a majority of the votes cast or a favorable vote of the majority of the electors of any of the cities and towns within the said county of Alameda, exclusive of the city of Oakland, and in the city of Oakland did receive the favorable vote of a majority of the electors voting on such proposal, but did not receive a favorable vote of a majority of the electors of and in said city of Oakland."

Divorce of Mrs. Taube.

"I was dressed in pajamas and bathrobe."

The bathrobe was placed in evidence. Around 3 p. m. I saw Miss Rappe in my room.

"I was then going out for an engagement with Miss Taube. I invited her to my room.

"I picked her up and she vomited. I held her hair out of her face. Then I took a towel and wiped her face.

"I gave her a glass of water. She said she would like to lie down and I carried her to a bed.

"She said she had these spells often."

GIRL FOUND WRITHING ON FLOOR.

"I went to the bathroom and when I came back she was on the floor, writhing and moaning. I called Miss Pyron and Mrs. Delmont."

"When they came in she was tearing her clothes.

"She pulled up her dress and took off her stockings, and pulled the lace off her garter.

"I told the girls to stop her and tried to help her.

"I went out and when I came back Mrs. Delmont was rubbing her with ice.

"I picked up a piece of ice and Mrs. Delmont told me to get out and I told her to shut up or I'd throw her out the window.

"Then had Mrs. Taube call the hotel manager.

"When he came, we put Mr. Fischbeck's bathrobe on Miss Rappe and carried her to another room.

"I carried her three-quarters of the steamer to Mrs. Martin, who arrived yesterday from the Orient."

DOOR NOT LOCKED, CURTAINS UP.

"The door leading from my room to the corridor was not locked. The window was open and the curtain up.

"Miss Rappe said nothing anyone could understand.

"At no time did I tell Mr. Semnacher anything about ice and Miss Rappe's body."

"I did not place my hand on Miss Rappe's hand while she had hold of the door."

"I did not come into contact with the door."

"I did not ask Oscar Norgaard for Surgeon Dr. Flaherty ordered a search of every part of the vessel for a clew to the persons responsible for the smuggling."

"Conditions hoped for have not come about. While true, pumping expense has materially decreased, on the other hand the cost of materials and equipment is higher than in 1918. That the company is today receiving a smaller return than at the time of the imposition of this surcharge, we propose to show in a convincing way."

STOCK DEAL IS.

ATTORNEY'S CHARGE.

It was agreed at the start of the hearing that there shall be no cross-examination. The company made its statement, submitted its engineering and statistical report, and took testimony from witnesses, with the city attorneys and consumers' representatives as interested hearers.

The battle of the East Bay cities, backed up by the statistics of Engineers R. W. Hawley and Ralph Eeble, will be centered on the stock transactions of the water company, according to City Attorney Leon Gray's consistent statement since the beginning.

Gray asserts that "it is all an attempt to give earning power to certain Class B stock." He contends that if the company does not have to make this stock bring earnings, the earnings of the company are sufficient; but if it has to bring dividends for this additional capitalization, then the company must naturally get higher rates.

DIVIDENDS ON OLD STOCK ARE CLAIMED.

"When the old People's Water Company was reorganized into the East Bay Company," says Gray, "it will be remembered that a large block of stock owned by the Havens interests was temporarily shelved and classified as Class B, with the understanding that the owners of that stock would ask no dividends for five years. The five years are now up."

"By indirection, it may be, that the company is now pledged to put up a battle to bring earnings on that Class B stock and make it worth something. The city attorneys of the East Bay cities will concentrate on this point."

Among the associations represented at the hearings are the California Housewives' League, Berkeley Housewives' League, Glenview Women's Club, Golden Gate Improvement Club, Foothill Community Development Association, Building Trades Council, Apartment House Owners' Association, San Leandro Housewives' League, Mothers of Spanish War Veterans, Oakland Housewives' League.

And the homes of James Vander Zwelp, in outer San Pablo avenue, and James N. Long at Richmond.

PIEDMONT, EMERYVILLE PROTEST HELD PROBABLE.

In the case of this election, it is pointed out, the issue is brought up squarely because of the seeming distinction as to certification of the essential city and the balance of the county. Only in referring to the essential city, which city is the sole one which could force a disruption of the county, does the act specify that a "majority of the qualified electors" must vote favorably.

In all other instances the law says clearly that a "majority of the qualified electors" must determine results. This distinction, it is argued, would indicate that the legislature had in mind the fact that the essential city was given the power of forcing county division and that the question there should be settled by an undoubted majority expression.

PIEDMONT, EMERYVILLE PROTEST HELD PROBABLE.

The opinion at the courthouse is that the certification leaves the question wide open and subject to attack. There is talk there that a contest from Piedmont or Emeryville, in view of the fact that those three would be the nucleus of the proposed city and county of Oakland, and that the question there should be settled by an overwhelming majority expression.

Department Store Expert Is Making Survey All Over the United States.

While industrial chiefs in the East are conservatively optimistic and business conditions in that section are gradually turning back to normal, the western states, particularly California, are experiencing a period of commercial prosperity which surpasses any other portion of the country.

This was the declaration today of John Block, a member of the firm of Kirby, Block & Fischer, Inc., representing fifty departments and specialty stores throughout the country, who is making a tour of the United States to get a more thorough insight into business conditions. Block will leave tonight for Los Angeles, after spending three days in Oakland as the guest of Mannheim & Mizor, one of the stores his firm represents, based his statement upon the survey he has made of business conditions in the leading cities of the country.

"Coming west," he said, "I found that the Middle Western states, those just beginning well, were suffering from a depression which is caused by the low price being paid for corn and is ruining to the farmers. However, when I got west of Denver I noticed a better feeling, and when I got to the coast conditions had almost reversed. In most places the west, business is up to last year, and that means a good deal, as a larger quantity of goods have to be sold, because of the low prices to obtain last year's results."

"The Eastern businesses are conservatively optimistic, and while conditions there are not nearly as good as they are here, they believe that they will soon be back on a normal footing. Altogether, business is better in California today. I believe that in any other place in the coun-

the key to Miss Rappe's dressing room at the Culver City studio. "I have told everything that occurred with her in the room with Miss Rappe."

On cross-examination, he said his room at the hotel was room 1219.

"I don't remember if I ever saw Ostar Norgard at Culver City.

I rented a studio from Henry Lehman at Culver City in 1919.

"Yes, I saw Miss Rappe there."

Reverting to the party he said no other ladies were present when Miss Rappe arrived.

He said he did not know she was coming.

DEFENDANT MAKES EXCITING WITNESS.

Arbuckle was an ideal witness, speaking rapidly and clearly in a deep, pleasant voice. He leaned far forward in his chair and emphasized his words with gestures and his expressive face.

Mrs. Delmont came to the party a few minutes after Miss Rappe, he said.

At times Arbuckle would rest his head on his hand, pressing one finger deeply into his fat cheek. He looked the state's attorney closely in the eye while under cross-examination.

Miss Rappe, Fortulous, Mr. Sherman and myself were there when Mrs. Delmont arrived," he said. "Miss Blake and Miss Pyron came next. I never had seen them before in my life."

"How long after Miss Blake came did Miss Pyron arrive?" he was asked.

"I don't know," he answered with evident irritation. "I'll guess for you if you want. Say about twenty minutes."

"When Miss Pyron arrived I was sitting in a chair eating breakfast and talking to Miss Rappe."

"I was drinking coffee. On another table was Scotch whisky, gin, orange juice and White Rock water.

FISCHBECK PUTS LIQUORS ON TABLE.

"Mr. Fischbeck placed the liquor on the table.

"He said for everyone to help themselves.

"Nobody mentioned drinking—he just brought it in about the time Miss Rappe arrived."

"We had whisky, gin, orange juice and White Rock water all there was?" he was asked.

"I guess that's all," he said, carelessly.

"Did you know Al Semnacher was going to be there?"

"No."

"What was being done before Miss Rappe left the room?"

"Everyone dancing, drinking and playing the Victrola. Miss Rappe suggested bringing up the Victrola."

"Did you drink anything?"

"Yes, highballs."

"Did you dance?"

"Uh-huh."

DRINKING, DANCING ALL AFTERNOON.

"How long did this dancing and drinking last?"

"All afternoon."

"Did you know one lady was coming, didn't you?"

"Yes. We were going riding."

"Then did Fischbeck leave?"

"Between 1:30 and 1:45. He wanted to borrow my car. I said go ahead."

"When did you next see him?"

"In about an hour and a half."

"Did he tell you where he was going when he took your car?"

"He said he was going to the beach to see some seals."

"What did Miss Rappe say when she suggested music?"

"She said, 'Let's have some music, a piano or something.' I said, who can play a piano. None could, So I got a Victrola."

"What did you want it for?"

"For music."

"Did you dance with Miss Rappe?"

"No, with Miss Blake."

"Did you see Miss Rappe dance?"

"Yes."

"Did you at any time tell anyone they would have to leave?"

Three Tong Men Go To Trial for Slaying

Taking of testimony was begun today in the joint trial before Superior Judge George Samuels of Lew Kim, Sam Low and Chin Fong, accused of the murder of Wong Wah Young, rival tongman.

Deputy District Attorney Wade Snook made the opening statement for the prosecution in which he said he would prove by eye-witnesses that the accused did the shooting. He said he would show that the three entered Wong's room, that one of them grabbed him and that when he broke away and ran down the hall he was shot.

Donahue, Hynes and Hamlin, representing the defendants, will not make their opening statement until the beginning of testimony for the defense.

Tip Dot, who claims to have been present and to have seen the shooting, was the first witness for the prosecution.

Married 33 Years, Wife Gets Divorce

Although she had been his wife for nearly 33 years, Mrs. Emma Lowry secured a divorce today from George Lowry on a charge of cruelty. Superior Judge A. F. St. Sure granted her an interlocutory decree. Mrs. Lowry said her husband threw his shoes at her, kicked her out of bed and threatened to shoot one of their three grown sons. They were married in 1889. The family home was at 976 Thirty-fifth street.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kolenkark of Berkely, who today filed suit with County Clerk George Gross for a divorce from Richard V. Kolenkark, charges desertion. She asks permission to resume her maiden name of Brandt. They were married in New York January 22, 1920.

dismantling of the Pacific fortifications the price of their acceptance.

The three great American bases in the Pacific are at Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines.

In the absence of official American opinion it is believed the American would be an option no American naval strategists have pointed out that Manila would struggle but a thousand miles from Japan while it is roughly six times that distance from San Francisco. In other words, in the event of trouble between the United States and Japan, a Japanese fleet could reach America's far Eastern possession in one-sixth the time that an American fleet could reach Manila.

While American officials denounce any suggestion of a split in the conference it can be surmised authoritatively that the American delegation is willing to see the conference stand or fall on the issue of Japan's acceptance.

Until the capital ship issue is settled the experts are not concerning themselves with objections based on the above-mentioned places

Space Booked By Lloyd George On All Ships To U.S.

LONDON, Nov. 28.—Premier Lloyd George's determination to go to Washington has been strengthened by latest developments in the international conference. It was learned today that he has made tentative bookings on all the liners sailing for New York in the three weeks. The premier has promised the various shipping companies to give forty-eight hours' notice as to the liner he will take. Officials in Downing street are confident Lloyd George will be in Washington before Christmas.

CARRIERS. The big ships form the hub of the whole Hughes program, and until an agreement is reached on these the experts are giving little thought to the other craft. One thing at a time is their motto.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—A copy of a letter from President Harding to Representative Kotaro Mochizuki, a leader of the Japanese opposition party, who is in Washington, was given out today by the spokesman of the delegation. In the President's letter, said he shared Mochizuki's good wishes for the success of the armament conference.

The Japanese political leaders' letter to Harding was accompanied by a pamphlet suggesting that the United States should disarm Hawaii, the Philippines and the Island of Guam, while Japan should do likewise in the Pescadores, the Loochoos, Bonin and Oshima Islands.

If, however, total disarmament should be impossible as a practical measure, then at least, he contendeth there should be no further enlargement of the existing armaments in the above-mentioned places.

JAPAN WILL NOT DISRUPT PARLEY, BRYAN BELIEVES

Tokyo Can Hardly Insist On Increase When Decrease Being Inaugurated.

By WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN. (Copyright, 1921, by the United Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—Japan is represented as still insisting on an increase from 60 to 70 per cent in her proportion, but it is intimated that she will not carry her insistence to the point of disrupting the conference. What that could do effect? It is known that her government would like to have her proportion increased, but she has so far followed the proceedings of the conference without a moment's suspect Japan of intending to obstruct the success of the conference by insisting upon anything of minor importance and the percentage is of minor importance.

If this convention is inaugurating a policy of continuous decrease, Japan can hardly insist upon a larger proportion and for the same reason the other nations can hardly permit a demand for such a decrease to break up the conference. The other nations can better afford to concede seventy per cent than Japan can afford to demand it.

Still more important is the continued rumor that the United States will propose a continuing conference, or at least an annual gathering of the representatives of all nations.

This is important if true and it would seem to be true. Circumstantial evidence in support of such a forecast can be found in the attack made upon it by so-called freeon-ableables.

But while those who object to any association of nations are issuing threats, friends of the proposition are expecting that it does not mean a binding covenant, but merely a forum for the development of facts which, when known, will direct public opinion. This is all that is needed.

It will become practically impossible when every international grievance can be aired. The world's conscience will then have a basis upon which to rest moral conclusions which no civilized nation can disregard. All that is needed is the investigation of every dispute before a resort to war and time for separation of questions of fact from so-called questions of honor. Independence of action afterwards will not jeopardize the peace of the world.

Association Is League Under New Name: Borah

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—(By Associated Press).—The "association of nations" which, according to reports, President Harding has foreseen as a possible outcome of the armament conference, would be the old league of nations under another name, Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, declared in a statement last night. Senator Borah's statement follows:

The proposed association of nations has not yet been reduced to form nor yet defined. But from what one can gather it is the old League of Nations under another name. It will be engaged in precisely the same kind of work and doing the same kind of things proposed by the league. It is not what you call it, but what it is that counts.

Fundamentally it will not differ from the League of Nations. I see no reason, therefore, why the forty-three nations which have signed the league should be asked to abandon it and transfer their names to an association of nations. If we want to go into this kind of a proposition there is no reason why we should not experiment with the one they have.

"LEAGUE BY NEW NAME."

It is claimed by league advocates that the league has been of much service to Europe. If so, there is no reason for asking Europe to scrap the old league and try a new one. If we are going into Europe we ought to go in. It would not be right to be handling up a new league every ninety days. She will likely conclude that after the next presidential election she would have another league. I see no difference in joining the present league and joining another league by a new name.

Lloyd George suggested, according to press despatch, that the Anglo-Japanese alliance be extended to an Anglo-American-Japanese alliance and that this alliance take on itself the duty of administering China. Now, it is said, such an alliance would be objectionable to the American people, but that under an association of nations the same thing could be effected and accomplished.

It is also urged that while the people of the United States would not be willing to form an alliance with France and Great Britain to guarantee the security of France the same thing could be accomplished under an association of nations.

It is also urged that the international organization be more easily manipulated through the association. All of which things simply disclose that the association of nations is another name for the league with some additional and more extensive powers annexed.

It does not appear as yet whether we have two leagues or one league and one association or nothing. It is to that the league organized by Wilson will be merged into the association organized by President Harding. It will be difficult to get rid of the present league unless the Versailles treaty is radically modified, but I presume we will know more when the matter is reduced to such concrete form as will enable us to grasp it or at least to try to do so.

NOT ONE OFFICER OPPOSED TO CUT, DENBY DECLARIES

Reports That Navy Personnel Against Plan Draws An Emphatic Denial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Not one officer of the navy is opposed to the plan drawn up by Secretary Denby to publish reports that American naval officers were opposing the naval reduction programs submitted by the American delegation at the armament conference and that the secretary of the navy had ordered naval officers not to oppose it. In a formal statement, Denby said he had heard of no officer on board of a single ship of the navy establishment of the United States who does not approve the American proposals and does not heartily wish success to this conference. I cannot understand how any other impression has gone abroad. In justice to the officers, I wish to correct it as soon as possible.

British, favorably accepting the plan for an association of nations, denounced France for her refusal to do so. French papers took advantage of the possibility that the British might turn to the armament conference and perhaps the various associations and naval officers not to oppose it. In a formal statement, Denby said he had heard of no officer on board of a single ship of the navy establishment of the United States who does not approve the American proposals and does not heartily wish success to this conference. I cannot understand how any other impression has gone abroad. In justice to the officers, I wish to correct it as soon as possible.

ITALY AND JAPAN BACK COURT PLAN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Europe is being treated as a negligible quantity at the Washington Conference on the opening of the Deutsche Allemannia Zellung, the organ of Hugo Stinnes, leading German financier. It seems evident in the circumstances that curtailing of naval armament has been given primary consideration and that the issue of land armament is not causing the conference apprehension. This attitude, says the newspaper, "gives a sense of indifference to Germany's desire for demilitarization of the European mainland."

The speech of Premier Briand outlined to the conference France's need for a large army is characterized as "purely speculation in American sentimentality and credulity."

It considers an impossible achievement any attempt to convert the capitalistic bearers of European civilization into Chinese colonies at the very moment the United States is endeavoring to bring the Chinese to the level of the capitalistic order of society.

The aggressive manner in which China presented her case to the conference is not substantiated by her internal situation, and can be explained only on the ground that she is sure of American backing," says the paper in discussing the American Far East policy. The United States is surfeited with gold and silver. Japan has surplus of humanity, and the adjacent mainland affords her the only outlet for emigration.

"Thus Japanese imperialism and American peace policies oppose one another as the natural consequences of conflicting social considerations. In the final analysis, however, they harmonize; their methods alone are at variance."

Women Voters Back Limitation Plans

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Mrs. Maud Wood Park, president of the National League of Women Voters, has sent a message to President Harding in behalf of the board of directors of the league, endorsing Secretary Hughes' program for the limitation of armament and pledging support of the organization to the plan.

No Need of Alliance, Prof. Kuno Asserts

BERKELEY, Nov. 28.—That no benefit can be derived from the new formation of an Anglo-Japanese Alliance is the declaration of Professor Yoshi S. Kuno, of the Oriental Languages department of the university.

"The need for an alliance is over.

During the war Japan was of great help to Great Britain. She patrolled the Pacific, carried on wars against the German submarines in the Mediterranean and convoyed allied troops to the different fronts.

Now the war is over there seems to be no longer a need for such an alliance."

LABOR TROUBLES LOOM IF JAPAN'S SHIPYARDS CLOSE

Government Is Worried As to How to Furnish Employment to Workers.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Whatever be the eventual decision of the limitations conference, it seems clear from Tokyo despatches that the prospects of a cessation of work in the yards in Japan is causing considerable disturbance in labor circles and is giving the government a difficult problem.

The great shipbuilding yards of Japan are those of the Kawasaki and Mitsubishi corporations. It is understood that some 45,000 employees of these yards have decided to hold a strike starting November 29, to protest against the introduction of foreign workers.

The meeting has been called on the 29th to discuss the idea of presenting to the Japanese government some kind of project finding new ways of employment for the men.

The labor department has begun an investigation to determine measures to relieve unemployment which will follow a naval curtailment.

Japan's industrialists are following the discussions of the conference.

REILIN, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Europe is being treated as a negligible quantity at the Washington Conference on the opening of the Deutsche Allemannia Zellung, the organ of Hugo Stinnes, leading German financier. It seems evident in the circumstances that curtailing of naval armament has been given primary consideration and that the issue of land armament is not causing the conference apprehension. This attitude, says the newspaper, "gives a sense of indifference to Germany's desire for demilitarization of the European mainland."

The speech of Premier Briand outlined to the conference France's need for a large army is characterized as "purely speculation in American sentimentality and credulity."

It considers an impossible achievement any attempt to convert the capitalistic bearers of European civilization into Chinese colonies at the very moment the United States is endeavoring to bring the Chinese to the level of the capitalistic order of society.

This is taken as the German reply to the speech of Premier Briand before the Washington disarmament conference, in which the French premier pointed to "a German military menace" as the reason for France refusing to substantially reduce her armies.

London, Nov. 28.—Germany is prepared to offer guarantees that she has disarmed, to allay fears of the French, according to a despatch to the London Chronicle from Berlin, quoting "an official statement from the German ministry of defense."

The need for an alliance is over.

During the war Japan was of great help to Great Britain. She patrolled the Pacific, carried on wars against the German submarines in the Mediterranean and convoyed allied troops to the different fronts.

Airman Killed in Fall of Forty Feet

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 28.—Emory Rogers, 23, former army aviator, was fatally injured yesterday when a monoplane in which he was flying crashed to the ground on an airfield bearing his name near here. He died in a hospital soon after the accident. Rogers, according to his mother, was flying about 40 feet from the ground at the rate of 140 miles an hour, when he attempted to turn. He apparently lost control and the machine crashed down sideways.

Tuesday is "Fairy Story" Day for the Children

Miss Ethel Rose Taylor, "The Story Telling Lady," is going to tell Fairy Stories Tuesday, from 3:30 to 4:30, in our Roof Garden Restaurant.

Mothers are asked to bring the little folks to these story-telling sessions, as we don't believe the little folks have heard stories told in just the way this CAPWELL Story Telling Lady tells them.

Following is her Tuesday program:

The Elves and the Shoemaker,

The Dervish of Mocha,

The Tinder Box.

MARINES THWART GIGANTIC PLOT TO LOOT U. S. MAILED

Discovery of Conspiracy Leads Government to Assign 2000 Guards to Service.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 28.—A nation-wide plot to rob the United States mails this winter, it was disclosed yesterday, moved the government in its decision to guard mail trains, mail wagons and post offices with United States marines.

Details of the plot have not been made public, but Edward H. Shaughnessy of Chicago, second assistant postmaster general in charge of the railway mail service, is authority for the statement that the 2000 marines now operating with the mail service were not called upon to fight a few bandits who might take it into their heads to rob the mails, but to prevent the execution of a gigantic plot.

The marines only went on duty in the nick of time, according to the belief of officials, and their vigilance may be the great factor in stopping mail robbery.

Inspectors of the department have information as to the concerted action planned to rob mail trains and trucks throughout the country, and believe that they have in custody in New York one of the members of the mail robber band.

Five attempts were made in New York to effect the mail robbery which resulted finally in a haul of more than $1,000,000. The man now in custody was arrested on a single charge of mail robbery, but it is understood, but not yet admitted, that he had attempted to rob the truck before, and had been thwarted on each occasion.

—why thousands are changing their wills

Trust company records throughout the nation prove that far-sighted men and women are changing their Wills and naming a trust institution as executor and trustee in the place of friends and relatives.

History attests the many weaknesses of individual executorship.

The remarkable growth of the trust companies of the United States is indisputable evidence of the satisfactory character of the service they render.

Why not arrange today to have California's largest bank act as your executor!

PACKING PLANT MEN TO RESIST SLASH IN WAGES

Omaha Workers Favor Strike
If Proposed Cut Is Made.

OMAHA, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press).—Omaha packing plant workers yesterday voted in favor of a strike here to resist announced wage cuts if a majority of employees of the industry in other packing centers want to take similar action.

The vote was taken at a mass meeting called by the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen's Union of North America. According to Jacob Davis, president of the union's district council, about 50 per cent of those who attended were non-union workers.

CHICAGO, Nov. 28.—Wage cuts recently agreed to by representatives of the workers of the packing industry paves the way for a ten-hour day and further wage cuts, speakers at meetings of protest held under the auspices of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen's Union of North America asserted yesterday.

Three meetings were held, but only a few hundred workers were present.

They expressed their disapproval of the wage cuts agreed to at conferences between representatives of the workers and employers.

Daniel J. Lynch, secretary of the national union organization, asserted that the industrial relation plan exists only on paper; that it does not represent the sentiment of the workers, and that it merely paves the way for further wage cuts.

A resolution was adopted repudiating the action of the plant conference boards in accepting wage reductions.

Complaint Missing When Case Is Closed

Nels P. Nielsen, who is accused of driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, appeared this morning before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell, but the case was continued until tomorrow morning because there was no complaint filed.

He was arrested yesterday at the corner of Thirteenth and Fallon streets by Policeman E. S. Bettencourt.

It's Just Like Finding Ten-Dollar Bill to Name This Cartoon and Take Tribune Prize

Now, don't tell speak at once!

This is easy picking this week. Last week we had a hard one. But this art gallery, Anthony Comstock stuff ought to be just like finding a ten-dollar bill.

It's easy. Just name the cartoon. For the best title, the one most apt, the cleverest or most fitting. THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE will pay $10 each week. The rules are simple, as follows:

The titles must be written on a postcard and

PLANETS HOLD COUNCIL AND SCARE LAYMEN

This year's annual grand ball of the Edonai club of St. Mary's parish is planned to exceed previous efforts, according to those making arrangements for the dance, which is to take place in St. Mary's auditorium, Seventh and Grove streets, tomorrow evening.

The hall will be decorated appropriately and music will be furnished by a jazz orchestra. The chairman of the evening will be Miss Helene L. Ring. She will be assisted by the following: May Quirk, Frances Capiss, Regina Monzo, Evelyn Barron, Margaret Sullivan, Mary Grogan, Mary Dwyer, Ramona C. Ring, May Lynn, Florence Kehler, Alice Stoltz, Helen Stillman, Louise Murphy and Frances Lee. The affair is to be informal.

All five planets were within the circumference of a circle which could be blotted out by the hand held at arm's length before the eyes. To the average observer it was more than wonderful what was, perhaps the beginning of the end. But it was little to science.

Prof. A. O. Leuschner, head of the Department of Astronomy of the University of California, stated that science had foretold the gathering for some time, and that it was nothing unusual.

"It merely happens," he said.

STUDENTS' PLAN TO KEEP SECRET WEDDING FAILS

Leonard J. Gerlach of Richmon and Miss Anna K. Ulrich of Santa Barbara planned to keep secret their marriage of Saturday night until they should have completed their studies in the University of California. While Gerlach is speeding southward, to remain over the holidays, however, his bride is receiving the attention of their college friends. Mrs. Gerlach will join her husband in Los Angeles for Christmas.

The romance of the young son of John G. Gerlach, former Richmond councilman, and the attractive young woman who plighted him her troth had its beginnings in a summer session in Berkeley. The couple on Saturday night sought out Judge Mortimer Smith to perform the marriage.

Gerlach is a federal vocational student with a brilliant war record. He is enrolled in the University of California. The bride is a member of the Tewanah Club, 2530 Ridge road.

Fire, Explosion In Pharmacy Plant

An investigation into the cause of the fire which threatened the entire plant of the National Pharmacy company, Sixteenth and Wood streets, yesterday morning, is being made by the police.

The fire broke out in the rear of the plant at 5 o'clock in the morning and spread rapidly in a portion of the building which is known as the chemical store room. When the department reached the scene a violent explosion was heard. The rear end of the building and the supply of stock was destroyed by the fire. The officials of the company refused to estimate the loss.

Map Is Ordered Held On Bad Check Charge

Angelo Franzini was arraigned this morning before Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell on a charge of passing a worthless check. The date of the preliminary examination will be set Wednesday morning. He was arrested on the complaint of Mrs. Molie Lowenthal, 1480 Seventh street, in Sacramento, and was brought back to this city by Police Inspector Alex Trotter.

CABARET DANCE AT PLEASANTON PLEASURES MANY

Closing Social Event of Year
on Revelers' Club Program
Proves Big Success.

PLEASANTON, Nov. 28.—The Revelers closed a most eventful social year on last Saturday evening when they entertained more than two hundred and seventy-five persons at a cabaret dancing party. The big affair brought to a happy close a year that has been full of many brilliant social offerings and the public responded in large numbers to the notable closing success as evidenced by the other affairs earlier in the season.

Forester's hall was the scene of the party and was artistically transformed into a riot of color. Long garlands of pepper greens, with red berries, were suspended from a canopy in the center of the hall, where an attractive centerpiece in gold was held. The stage setting was in lavender and mandarin, with tall palms and ferns.

The cabaret features were started at 10 o'clock, with Miss Theresa Perry of this city singing two popular Spanish songs, "La Paloma" and "La Colindrina," and adding a Spanish dance. Miss Perry appeared dressed as a gypsy, wearing a Spanish mantilla brought here in early days. Miss Claudine Hartman of Oakland, a talented dancer, followed at 11 o'clock, her group of dances opening with her version of Salome, the Egyptian snake and death dance and concluding with a jazz dance. Midnight numbers were participated in by Miss Perry and Miss Gladys Peters, also of this city. Their dances and songs and clever costumes formed a splendid closing number and offered something different than anything ever attempted locally. Promptly at 1 o'clock the three participants appeared in costume on the runway from the stage to the floor of the ballroom and distributed serpentine and favors to the dancers, which were used during the last dance.

The affair, in addition to the dancers, brought out a large number of spectators, who filled the sections reserved for those not dancing. The club is auburn over the success of their first cabaret dance and in all probability will present another as a closing attraction another season. The cabaret features were prepared by Ernest W. Schween, the unique decorations and stage effects by Miss Elsie Tringham and Herminia Utendorff, the musical program and special score by Captain P. Garfield of Livermore, the light effects by Stiles C. Hansen and the floor details were handled by W. J. Williams and W. J. Kelly.

Improvement Club
To Hold '49 Dance

The Diamond Improvement club will give a Forty-nine dance tonight in aid of the building fund. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. E. J. Engler, Mrs. R. D. Phillips, Mrs. T. F. Parrell, Mrs. Holman and Mrs. Buckman. The "bar" will be in charge of "Dutch" Hansen, Edith Farrell, Evelyn Roberts and Josephine Kinman will be Spanish flower girls. The frontier restaurant will be in charge of Helen Bell, Mrs. E. T. Burkhardt and Mrs. George J. Gilbert. The members of the floor committee will be R. D. Phillips, George J. Gilbert, M. Holman and M. Fritz.

Edonai Club Plans Its Dance Tomorrow

The municipal pile driver today started driving piles on the 500-foot trestle for the new garbage dump in West Oakland.

As soon as this work is completed, Oakland will have "the first garbage dump in the West" with wooden-paved runways all over the place to keep dump wagons out of the mud during winter. The roads are all completed.

The hall will be decorated appropriately and music will be furnished by a jazz orchestra. The chairman of the evening will be Miss Helene L. Ring. She will be assisted by the following: May Quirk, Frances Capiss, Regina Monzo, Evelyn Barron, Margaret Sullivan, Mary Grogan, Mary Dwyer, Ramona C. Ring, May Lynn, Florence Kehler, Alice Stoltz, Helen Stillman, Louise Murphy and Frances Lee. The affair is to be informal.

PALADINI, 'FISH KING,' DEAD IN SAN FRANCISCO

Starts in Business With $10; Dies Worth Over a Million.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 28.—Achille Paladini, "Fish King," and perhaps the most romantic figure on San Francisco's waterfront in the past half-century, died in St. Francis' hospital yesterday, following a third stroke of paralysis. He was 73 years old.

When Paladini arrived in San Francisco in 1866 he was possessed of $10. Reputed wealthy at the time of his arrival, his early fortune was wiped out. It has since been commonly accepted that he was the second wealthiest Italian on the Pacific Coast, his interests being reported at approximately $1,500,000. Paladini owned fish markets in San Francisco, Oakland and Monterey and had agents the length of the coast and far east into China. Until stricken a month ago, he worked along with his men, cutting fish and waiting on customers 16 or 18 hours a day.

Paladini was born in Alcova, Italy, when a boy, he ran away to join Garibaldi's army. In his desire for independence, he discharged his forces to the sea for six years. Later he signed on a vessel bound for America by way of Cape Horn. When the vessel anchored in San Francisco bay, Paladini, with $10, left the crew to go into the fish business. He began his career as a vendor on Fisherman's Wharf. As his business grew, he bought outfitts along the Sacramento river and gradually obtained control of the entire industry.

A widow, Mrs. Catherine Paladini, and seven children survive the pioneer. They are: Alexander, Attilio, Hugo, Walker, Henrietta, Ercilla and Yolanda Paladini.

ASK THE TRIBUNE Bureau of Information

Is the Saragasso Sea navigable? was a query that came in to the Information Department of The TRIBUNE today.

Yes, the steamer cuts out the Azores diagonally and very near the center of the Saragasso sea. None of the patches of seaweed comprising the obstructions of the Saragasso sea is more than an acre in extent. The United States Hydrographic office states that the Norwegian bark "Crown," as a derelict, entered at one side of the Saragasso sea and came out at the other. This office has no authority to record to show that the passage of vessels is materially impeded.

"Where is Muscle Shoals we read so much about in the papers, where Harry Ford plans on starting his enterprise?" asked another reader recently.

In the extreme northwestern part of Alabama on the Tennessee river near Florence.

The TRIBUNE Information Bureau will answer all questions of a general nature, except school or legal problems, debates, trade and firm names and queries as to the time of day.

The bureau is open every day, except Sunday, from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Correspondence is received by mail, stamps must be enclosed. Quickest results can be obtained by telephoning to the bureau. If you have any problems of a general nature to solve ask The TRIBUNE'S Information Bureau, Lakeside 6000.

KNIFE ORDER TO KEEP STORK AWAY DENIED BY JUDGE

Jurist Says Casual Comment Exaggerated Into Report of Alleged Edict.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.
DENVER, Nov. 28.—Judge Royal R. Graham of Georgetown denied today that he had recommended for Mrs. Clyde Cassidente of Denver, an operation that would make it impossible for her to bear any more children.

"After the case had been adjourned," said the Judge, "I did talk to a reporter that an order directing such an operation might be entered if an investigation disclosed conditions that would make it necessary and if the consent of the parties concerned could be obtained, but as far as I know Mrs. Cassidente is to submit to such an operation, that was farthest from my mind."

Mrs. Clyde Cassidente was held before Judge Graham, sitting in the juvenile court Saturday, on complaints of Denver social workers, to show cause why her children should not be removed from her custody, the woman was bearing children too fast. There are five Cassidentes, the oldest 8 years and the youngest about a year old.

Discussing the case after it had been given wide publicity, Judge Graham said:

"As to the justice or advisability of such an operation, I do not care to comment. Certainly there is no law that would permit such a ruling."

Uncle Wiggily STORIES by HOWARD R. GARIN

My land—it looks like a pie!

UNCLE WIGGLY AND THE PIE

When Uncle Wiggily hopped past the hollow stump school one day, he heard the lady mouse teacher saying: "Come children, we'll sing the pie song."

The bony rabbit gentleman stopped and twinkled his pink nose.

"I wonder what the pie song can be," thought the pie. "Surely they aren't singing about us. We are eating pie, for you have to open your mouth when you sing and to eat pie you must close your mouth. Then, too, we have to sing all day long, let the animal boys and girls eat pie in school. I wonder what it can be?"

Just then the lady mouse said again:

"All ready now—sing the pie song!"

And the squirrels, rabbits, possums, dogs, kittens, chickens and little mice sang:

"Sing a song of slumber,

A pocket full of dreams,

Four and twenty blackbirds,

Baked within a pie,

When the pie was opened,

They began to sing,

Now wasn't that a dainty dish

To set before the King?"

Uncle Wiggily laughed. He twirled his pink nose like an alarm clock going up-side-down.

Then he threw his red, white and blue striped rheumatisms crutch high up in the air.

"I know what I'm going to do," lauged the bunny. "I'm going to make a singing pie for Nurse Jane. That's what I do, but I'll say nothing about it until I have it all finished."

Filled with this new idea, Uncle Wiggily hopped over the woods and fields. The weather was cold and the gounds seemed to drop down flakes of brown, white snow, good to bare, brown earth. But Uncle Wiggily wore a warm fur coat and he did not mind the cold.

Over the fields and through the woods he hopped, hopped to town to stores. He went inside and bought something. Then he hopped along until he came to another store, and he bought some more. Finally he reached the hollow stump school.

"Now, Nurse Jane isn't home everything will be all right," thought the bunny to himself, as he was delved in his business. He hopped around and found that his muscular lady house-keeper had gone out.

From then on Uncle Wiggily was very busy. First he found an old dishtowel. Nurse Jane had laid aside, as it had holes in which to let the water run out.

"But the holes aren't large enough for my pie to run out," said the bunny, "so I'm going to mend them."

Mr. Longears sat down in his easy chair and looked at something in the middle of the dining room floor.

"If Nurse Jane doesn't laugh when she sees that, may I never nibble another cabbage leaf!" chuckled the plump uncle. There was a noise at the door. Uncle Wiggily quickly settled back in his chair. He seemed headed to sleep. He knew Nurse Jane's pawsteps.

"Wiggy! Wiggy!" exclaimed the musical lad as he stepped into the room. "Wiggy! Wake up! You're asleep!" And, for mercy's sakes, what's this big thing in the dishpan? It looks—my land!—it looks like a pie!"

"It is a pie!" laughed Mr. Longears. "Open the pie, Nurse Jane!"

The muscular lady put the knife through the paper crust of the big pie.

"What a delicious crust of this pie is made of paper-brown tissue paper—so that it looks just as if it had been baked in an oven!" cried Nurse Jane.

"A cookie!" laughed Mr. Longears.

"The muscular lady put the knife through the paper crust of the big pie."

"Oh, they are beautiful," she safely exclaimed, snatching them from the table. "Bassel, why not stay on this side of the mountains? You're a very clever young man if you would only give yourself a chance. Very soon you could go to the House of Burgesses. If you don't care to go into trade you could speculate in land. Father is against it, but if it will be done, you might as well do it as to leave the cream for others."

"Do not ask him to do that," I cried. And I repeated the message sent by Mrs. Davis. She smiled tolerantly and scoffed:

"Father's cousin sees danger where there isn't any. No Indian would ever bother me once he knew I was his father's daughter."

I began asking for Patricia, but she recognized me as a recent caller and broke in:

"Do massa's dauny white man gone wi dem."

"Gone away? John Ward went with them?" I murmured. "Which way did they ride, am'nt?"

"Dat a-way," and she pointed to the sun, now shot in half by Walker's mountain.

"You are sure they made for the mountains?"

"Dey gwine to stam right ag'in 'em, den ride over dem," she declared.

"When did they ride?"

"Two days ergo. Bright'n early in 'emornin'."

I ran to my home and mounted.

The first stage of my journey was to Howard's Creek, although there was no crossing. At the Dales and Ward were taking that route. I had small doubt, however, but that Dale was bound for the home of his cousin on Howard's Creek.

He would be more likely to go boldly and openly, I reasoned, because of his belief there was nothing for him to fear. As I hurried to the west I paused at every habitation and inquired for the travelers. Always the same reply: two men and a woman had been observed.

When I finally reached the Greenwood cabin at Dunlap's Creek I learned had gained a day because of Patricia's need for rest.

"I have a follow about your age," I broke in. "The Indians killed his people on Keene's Knob two years ago, and stol' his little sister. He doesn't know whether she is dead or a captive. They folks were friendly. They were butchered after making a feast for Cornstalk and his warriors. There are many such cases. It would do no good for your father to tell young Corin and others who happened to survive that they are silly."

We were interrupted by a colored woman busking in with Col. Lewis' son in tow. The maid bowed profoundly before Patsy and then informed me:

"Please, Mausa Morris, do 'nuf 'mises fo' to see 'o' at the house right erway. I 'spect it's business fo' de gun'ner. De 'nuf mo' 'ficular dat he wants to see yo' to once. Yez, siah. Please, eth."

I dismissed her with a word of my immediate attendance on the colonel. Then I gave my hand to Patsy and said:

"This ends it then, Patsy, my thoughts of you have helped me out of many tight places."

"If you'll be sensible, Basdel," she said, "you'll be safe in the city for a long time."

"So am I sure of it, if you asked it. No, Patsy, it can't be that way I thank you. I may be an awful failure, but I can always fool myself with hoping for better things. If I was pushed into trade, that would 'nd me."

"Of course you know your limitations better than I do," she coldly said. "Thanks for the pretty mac-casins. I may have a chance to wear them soon."

"Do not wear them over the mountains, I said. "You were never meant for the frontier. Good-by."

I had mounted my horse and was off, the last surprise that I ever had.

"Nurse Jane, I am afraid I'll be badly beaten."

"We all have our three-quarters master of it."

The way of the transgressor isn't hard to learn. If only the grocer would feel content when we "recognize" our debt to him.

Strange how eager people are to visit the sick under this new be-

It will be a hard winter. The hide of politicians seems to be unusually thick.

If all novelists write as they feel, some of them feel mighty

KEEP A PRACTICAL VIEW.

It has been proved time and again that the best-intentioned adventure, the proposal of the highest potential benefit, cannot be undertaken without running the gauntlet of questionable enterprises trying to grab on to something that will give them the semblance of merit. The present international conference on disarmament in Washington is a striking instance.

This conference was conceived in a righteous purpose to achieve something practical. President Harding desires to bring about an agreement for the reduction of naval armaments and the limitation of new ship-building programs. Mindful of the fact that an agreement among the nations is necessary to this achievement, he has aimed at a rational reduction and limitation, possible as the basis of an agreement.

But now comes propaganda of two kinds to confuse the issue and possibly interfere with the accomplishment of even modest decreases in naval programs. There is a cry for complete disarmament. There is a raucous note from busybodies to the effect that they are going to be grievously disappointed if complete disarmament is not the result of the conference.

This propaganda comes also from two sources. First from Communists, Socialists and radicals who want all military organization, machinery and discipline, all the police power society has been able to maintain, done away with, in order that they may find less ready and decisive resistance to their revolutionary schemes. Their aim is to devitalize the national spirit. They would destroy patriotism. They would kill allegiance to the government of the Republic, as the first preparatory step in establishment of their own schemes.

Secondly, there is the source of silly sententiousness. Pacifists of various brands—innocent and evil designing—give the stamp to this. It cries against anything that would remind the people of past wars, of the ever-present necessity of national defense. They start movements to abolish toy cannons from the Christmas counter. They would scrap all the trophy guns brought home from Europe and set up in municipal parks throughout the country. They spread silly stories about three-year-old children giving up their martial toys and other like rubbish.

Again it seems timely to remind our readers that the disarmament conference is designed as a practical effort to stop the destructively expensive competition in armament building. It would fix a limit to the number and size of warships of various classes. But it does not propose to make nations defenseless against attack from the outside, because it recognizes that such a proposal would be rejected and would cause the conference to founder in a sea of impractical idealism.

If the people retain their common sense viewpoint; if they keep their eye on the main point as outlined by President Harding, if they dismiss the ridiculous advances of the designing radicals and the innocent pacifists as have no proper place in American thought at this time, the people will not be disappointed.

THE SHIPPING BOARD.

At last a financial statement has been drawn up and issued by the United States Shipping Board. It is the first statement ever made available to the general public concerning the property controlled by the shipping board.

It is shown that the total assets of the shipping board are $307,000,000, which exceed all liabilities by $191,522,000. These itemized assets are interesting as showing the rather substantial financial condition of the board as a ship holding and operating agency. They include:

Cash on hand, $32,000,000; accounts and notes receivable, $32,954,000; accounts receivable of managing agents, $9,360,000; operating supplies, $10,850,000; surplus materials for sale at inventory value, $35,561,000; land structures and equipment for sale, $42,229,000; mortgages receivable and securities, $10,865,000; accounts and notes receivable from ship sales not secured by mortgages, $16,375,000; accounts and notes receivable secured by mortgages on ships sold, $88,997,000, and real estate and equipment used in operation, which includes piers, office buildings, etc., $3,967,000.

Not included in this statement of assets of the shipping board are the fleet of merchant vessels owned or leased by the Emergency Fleet Corporation, the unexpended balances of appropriations of Congress and contingent cases of admiralty claims. The ships are carried on the books at a figure far above their current value, but this will be corrected. The shipping board has a fine physical plant and ample financial power to successfully operate the government-owned merchant ships if the Act of Congress contemplating a settled mercantile marine policy and appropriate preferential treatment for American ships is put into effect.

STEEL MEN AGAINST WAR.

In view of the accusations and suspicions that have been voiced frequently in the past, there was a gathering of citizens in New York last week which took on an important interest. It was the dinner of the Iron and Steel Institute to Marshal Foch of France. In the banquet room were 1500 steel men connected with the steel industry of the United States. They were in whose concerns were busiest during the late war. They felt they had contributed a telling part to the winning of the war.

Presiding over the banquet was Mr. Elbert H. Gary, chairman of the board of directors of the United States Steel Corporation, the biggest maker of steel products in the country. He expressed his views upon peace, the disarmament conference and war in this wise:

"It would not seem practical to stop with less than a final treaty which will prevent future wars. In addition to what is contemplated by the limitation of armament, there should, with other things, be an understanding that if any international difference arise no resort to military force shall be permitted until after there has been a conference and full discussion by all the nations now participating in the deliberations at Washington."

Another speaker was Mr. Charles M. Schwab, head of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation, which has been the chief producer of armor plate, artillery and steel shells, as well as a builder of battleships. Mr. Schwab said:

"If the armed protection of our country is necessary, the establishment of which I am the head will devote itself with all its energy to providing means for protection of this country's homes and families. But I may say to you from the bottom of my heart that if the statesmen now assembled in Washington under the far-sighted leadership of our President and Secretary Hughes should find it possible to bring about disarmament and permanent peace, gladly would I see the war-making machinery of the Bethlehem Steel Corporation sunk to the bottom of the ocean.

"Nothing could contribute more to the ultimate and permanent prosperity and happiness of the world than the conclusion of agreements between the great nations of the world which would eliminate war and the causes of war."

These two leaders in the steel industry assumed to speak only for themselves, but there can be no question that they represented the sentiment of every leading factor in that industry. There is not an industrial plant anywhere in the world that cannot get along better and more profitably in the long run if the danger of war is eliminated, if it can work constantly, without disturbance of finance and business, on the products of peace.

It seems to be due the steel industry to give serious audience to the statements of its two most prominent and influential leaders. They want limitation of armament and elimination of the dangers of war just as seriously as any other citizens.

Let's see, what was the definition of comedy in the old days before they worked in bathing beauties.

THE COST OF LUXURIES.

Government statisticians are out again with their annual tables to show us how much we are spending for tobacco and baseball, perfume and candy, jewelry and ice cream. It's a lot of money. When we look at the figures it makes us wish we hadn't spent it—at least that was. There's the $35 million dollars we spent for perfume, jewelry and silk stockings. We didn't miss the money at the time, but now it's gone! sort of makes us wish we'd bought something else with it.

But that's the way with spenders like us—we never miss the money till it's gone. The remarkable thing is we don't care especially for perfume, either, and we always considered our taste in jewelry moderate, chaste even. We may have gone in rather strong for silk stockings. For we do say if we have a handbag, too. But we had no idea how the bill was mounting up. Close to a billion dollars, or enough to run congress almost three months.

If the government has correctly checked up our visits to the tobacconist we left 151 million dollars there last year. It's a lot of money. And having hit up we went from there to the theater, concert or baseball game and spent $97 million dollars more. Evidently we were out for a good time. We are glad to see, however, that we weren't thinking wholly of ourselves, for the moving finger writes that we spent 750 millions for candy—which shows we took something else with it.

From a certain tone of reprobation that accompanies the government's announcement of these figures, one might suppose we are decent and honest. Indeed, things that we bought with our money are called luxuries outright. Their cost is compared with the cost of maintaining the army, which is not a luxury but a necessity. The army cost only 480 million dollars last year, which is only half what we spent for soda water. The statisticians as much as say that if we'd quit drinking soda water we could have twice as big an army and not be taxed a penny more.

We're at something of a disadvantage here because the government has hired all the statisticians. If we had some on our side we could get up some tables showing what the government spends, and perhaps find that some of our expenditures were not waste. We'd like to know, for instance, what cost the gun to print the speeches of Senator Wood of Georgia. They never struck us as being a necessary.

We've often wondered what one of those congressional investigating committees cost, that hold hearings and print reports showing that to question number 15,716 the witness answered that he didn't remember.—Kansas City Star.

NOTES AND COMMENT

The editor of the Byron Times takes it philosophically. "Medicinal beer has gone the way of many good things. The Senate by a vote of 56 to 22 decided it was not wise to let the foaming beverage be sold even unto the sick. Senators Johnson and Shortridge thought otherwise, and voted so. We will have to be content with a little whisky now and then when we don't feel just right, and depend upon the good graces of the wise physician to allow us to have even that."

The Bakersfield Californian suggests a differentiation: "Women physicians should wear pretty clothes and cultivate pleasing manners if they wish to succeed," declares Dr. Louise Martindale, leading woman practitioner of London. She undoubtedly knows what she is talking about. We assume, however, that the woman doctors whom she advised to primp have only members of their own sex as patients. If, by any accident, a woman doctor should be summoned to treat a man, she need not bother about her personal appearance."

The Register tells of the abnormal sights of Watsonville. "The Monday Express is busier than usual in Watsonville, one street in that town, while there is no longer racing. That is nothing. We have three streets and one alley in Watsonville as dirty as Sahara. Still this city, while it has accomplished nothing great in controlling the illicit traffic, a start was made some time ago and that must have done."

The Stockton Record tells how the judge complicated it: "A man who was paying his first divorced wife $45 a month and a second ditto $55 a month has been told by a judge that no woman can live in San Francisco on $55 a month. When the first one hears that and gets in a new claim and things begin to warm up in the alimony line that man will probably decide he can't live in San Francisco at all."

Things do not appear to be going to suit the Woodland Democrat at all. "Ralph Merritt, during a recent visit to Woodland, stated that notwithstanding the low price of wheat and barley it will be necessary to import these grains in order to supply the demand. And yet we find that the emergency fund puts a duty of 33 cents on wheat. Can anyone suggest a greater absurdity?"

The Sacramento Bee offers this explanation: "Many men who work on farms or in the mountains during the summer and fall months, and who later come to this or some other city, keep their money in their pockets and become victims of street robbers, pickpockets or lodging-house thieves or burglars."

BOOKS, MOVIES AND THE CHILD

FAVORS

The third annual Children's Book week began appropriately enough on the birthday of Robert Louis Stevenson. That great lover of children and creator of such lasting classics as "Treasure Island" and "Prince Otto" would have regarded such an undertaking with sympathy and delight.

The General Federation of Women's Clubs, which is particularly interested in this movement, has prepared a series of suggestions for special club programs during the week and they include such ideas as the following eight: Poems children love; a Robert Louis Stevenson program; children's books of an older generation; the book beautiful—what has been done in the making of books for children; a Louisa May Alcott program; the books my children choose themselves; how shall I choose my children's books; the story hour, a pathway to the book.

What chance is there for a leisurely contact with good books unless hours are consecrated to the task of wholesome enjoyment of the written word.

"Our school system makes little or no provision for a thorough contact with books through spontaneous enjoyment. If a good book is put up on the curriculum, it is studied to death, until the child hates the word 'classic' and shudders at the word 'style.' Take the school reader and see what a conglomerate mess it is, whereas any good book could be made into a reader through the judicious handling of the book demands.

The movies simply ask for his eyes, never for his intelligence. And so he passes, in time, completely away from the field of books. He likes his meat red and raw, so he gets the book from the library. But it proves a bitter disappointment. The fighting, the heroism, the clash of swords are all there, but he has not the patience to find them. He has no appreciation of the beauties of style—he found none of that in the movies. He has no palate for background and atmosphere. The moving power of language leaves him cold. Ivanhoe, like every other great book, demands something from him, and he is not equipped to give it. He cannot supply the reader-co-operation that the book demands.

CLEVER BOXERS BEING DEVELOPED IN THE INTERIOR VALLEYS

SANTEL AND YOKEL FURNISH MOST SCIENTIFIC WRESTLING MATCH EVER SEEN IN OAKLAND

VALLEY PRODUCING OTHER THINGS BESIDES THEIR BUMPER CROPS

Crack Boxers Being Turned Out in Interior, Tribby of San Jose Is Latest Product.

By BOB SHAND.

The interior valleys of Central California, once famous only for their prunes and grapes and climate, are bidding for fame from another angle now—and they are getting away with it. In this case the boarding-house dessert and the stuff that is not permitted to ferment are not connected, and the wonderful climate the valley boasts of probably has nothing to do with the unusual amount of publicity San Jose, Newman, Merced and other interior towns are receiving, particularly on the sport pages. It seems that a new industry has been established to help advertise the interior—a middleweight and welterweight boxing foundry you might call it. Since the boxing game was revived in town most of the leading performers and main-eventers have been imported from the interior, and while some of them have proved bloomers, some of them have stuck at the top of the card and brought fame to their old home towns.

Henry Boora, the butcher boy who boxes Joe Herrera at the Auditorium Wednesday night, hails from Newman. He was devoured by the Red Sox, a baseball man, and became enthusiastic and turned over to Billy Murray for further development in the four-round ranks about the bay. Murray, who has subsequently won the title in the lightweight, Battling Gavvy, another middleweight, was sent up from the same place and was touted as a better boy than Boora.

The Butcher boy of Newman or San Jose, things called to make the right kind of impression in his first and only bout at the local fight house.

Next came Al Williams from San Jose. Next came Bert Trippy, who boxes open when he boxes Buck Holey here the first time, but his style made a hit with the customers and some enthusiastic admirers hailed him as another Santel. George Anderson, who took a field goal in their second meeting and a preliminary boy took a decision from him across the ring. It brightens the prospects of the men of the Southern Cross who will now concentrate on the great objective with renewed determination to relieve Uncle Sam of his Davis curse.

With the well-known boxer's mass performances during the last fifteen months, I said that some day G. L. Patterson or J. O. Anderson might defeat him. One little thought that the next year would be the magic would prove a prophecy.

Writing in the Sydney Referee of October 1, "Austral" offers the following:

"Anderson's defeat of William Tilden opens up a fresh vista for the Australasian team of 1922.

It brightens the prospects of the men of the Southern Cross who will now concentrate on the great objective with renewed determination to relieve Uncle Sam of his Davis curse.

Several games were forfeited to teams by the Umpires because the home club was on the job, but the action failed to move on at Thrasher Park in San Leandro. Umpire Manuel Perry declared a game forfeited to the Thrasher Park Stars because the Los Berillo Hatters Juniors failed to play in an appearance. At Fruitvale Depot the Florio & Figueiro team was on the job eleven strong, ready to tangle with the Fazlani & Co. team nine, but Manager Snoon of the Florio Figueiro could find only three of his men when Umpire Bethel called "play ball." After walking around for a half hour the referee, who had come to the Florio-Pagine boys.

At the Twenty-third Avenue levee the Western Electrics, leaders in the Western Division of the Class B, were beaten by the Rockwood Art Pottery by 5 to 0 score in the second inning when rain started.

Class "A" Leaders to Meet in National Next Sunday.

As all games in the class division of the leagues were postponed it is likely that the Arbitration Board will decide that all games of yesterday will be played the first Sunday following the date of the games on the schedule. There was a chance for a shake-up among the league leaders if the games were rescheduled yesterday, but now the fans are turning their backs on the Sunday combats, and if old Jupiter Pluvius can't stay away, the fans are going to see some of the class in the competition of the class A. A loss this time will be a good omen for the American Division there is no much promise of a shake-up next Sunday, unless a few surprises are in store. For all four games of that division second basemen will be the top rung of newcomers, but Simpson was so impressed with the work of the boys in the gymnasium that he gave him the sign of favor on the position and is willing to stake his reputation as a matchmaker that Trippy will make an immediate hit with the clientele.

Newcomer Said to Be a Hard Hitter.

Trippy is not strong on the clever stuff, but they say he can sock and it is the gent with the sock who gets by here. Holey will have quite an edge on cleavers, as Boche is one of the slick boys of the weight now performing here, but he has had to be careful of the Meno-Timpay right hand. Bert possesses a mean wallop in his left, but his right is said to be poison. If he defeats Holey there will be plenty of work for him, and the middleweights have proved the most popular class with the customers.

Another attractive bout on the next program is the Joe Roberts-Harold Emmal quarrel. Roberts has improved wonderfully in the past few months and has more than held his own with the best in the division. Joe is very fast on his feet and it required a whole lot of tricks since he started running up and down the coast boxing all comers. Emmal is a product of the Olympic Club and won the national championship on the coast. The Winged "O" organization and the P. A. A. hated to see Harold join the ranks of the little four-rounders but Emmal figured he could not afford to go into the same crop of amateur over and over again, so he decided to take a chance with the little medal hunters who entered him every year. Emmal did not show a great deal, notably because too much was expected of him. His admirers had the old stage-fright alibi to offer after the bout, but they have been doing something in that. If Emmal ticks Roberts he will have to be about 100 per cent better than he was the last time he started, for the tanky Alamedans are a hard nut to crack with a solid rock and he can box with the best of them.

WILL HAVE GREAT TEAM.

He needs only to get a firmly-wired orthodox backhand for voluntary give-up throwing away points and he can have a great team, and there is no one he need fear in a year's time. There have been some real battles on the first ten or twenty-first because Johnston and Tilden are him. Who else did, and who else had them? and Johnston when in their first matches?

Battling Ortega is going to be next year the greatest contests in the history of the game for the Davis cup if we can send four out of Patterson, Anderson, Brookes, O'Hara, Wood, Hayes and Tilden, and add back-hand, I hope. Clarence Todd and Maxwell Hardware at Durant baseball field.

In the regular four-round bout Emmal did not show a great deal, notably because too much was expected of him. His admirers had the old stage-fright alibi to offer after the bout, but they have been doing something in that. If Emmal ticks Roberts he will have to be about 100 per cent better than he was the last time he started, for the tanky Alamedans are a hard nut to crack with a solid rock and he can box with the best of them.

Battling Ortega is going to be another flier at the game and will leave tomorrow for Tulon, where he will start training with the best of them. The Battler lost a lot of fights on his last excursion, but you can't rule out for trying. Ortega has no business or profession outside of fighting as he probably has the same as long as the promoters offer him matches.

Three New Coaches For Basketball Teams.

Three new basketball coaches will be in charge at local colleges during the coming season. Joe Arreacocha, who won widespread fame last season with the University of the Livermore team, has been signed to take charge of Santa Clara this season.

Mannell, who has had an interest in football for a number of years, will take charge of the Livermore team, and he would have a chance to do well.

Arreacocha's experience in the East should serve as a lesson to other local coaches, who often let big money by Eastern managers to coach on the other side of the Rockies. Arreacocha was a fair preliminary boy here and might have amounted to something if he had been interested at heart, but it would have taken a couple of years to prime him for a spot with the top-notchers. Mannell, Edson, a few months ago, lost a couple of fights to John Tendler. It is quite a hint from holding a preliminary at Mill Evans' Valley club to a young boxer that he is best lightweight in the world and the experts happened when Arreacocha asked the referee to save him from being murdered in the second round.

The Western boxing game is syndicated to a fare-well. Leo P. Flynn, matchmaker for Tex Rickard's club, insists on managing most of the boys who appear in the Golden State. This is why the Shadys had to accept his terms. Joe Woodward and his partner have some forty boxers under contract and Scott Monteith and his partners, O'Brien and McNeil, have more fighters than Woodward's company. Other managers like Dumb Dan Morgan and Willard Sturm have big troubles. It is strictly business with these boys, but they are on the road to success with letters, signatures, their meal tickets and signing them. Yours in Sport. It should be "Yours for the dough." Weather Man Wins Decision Over Bushers

Two No-Hit, No-Run Games Are Pitched in the Morning.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

The weather man certainly missed things up for the TRIBUNE Leaguers yesterday when they were all set to start off on the second half of their tourney to Pennantville. Most of the games scheduled to be played in the morning took place, and after looking at the results and the work of some of the youngsters, the weather geniuses spoilt the plans of the Little Joe Bushers to treat the fans to their greatest baseball menu of the season. Two of the games played were featured by the work of Charlie Bray, the Little Lloyd Repairer chucker, in the class C League and George Caldera, the Hudson Lumie, who pitched the two no-hit, no-run games. At Durant Baseball Field the Glen Athletic Club and R. W. Tutt Hardware nines put up a fast game, the Glens walking away with the best part of a 3 to 2 score.

Not only did the weather man get an early job to cancel all class A and B games, but also for the afternoon, but he also left. The TRIBUNE League Arbitration Board facing a fine mess at Washington Park in Alameda, he sent old-timer "Puffin" into action to chase the grumpy weather. Merchants and Key System nines off the field along about the fifth inning and caused a lot of their time being taken. Then when the boys did get back, they played only to the end of the sixth when he was on the job again. The Alamedans put over the winning run in the last of the sixth.

In the Key System boys, who protested the games they believe should have been finished out. So George Hand, Lou B. Kennedy and the remainder of the Arbitration Board gave one more class B protest to settle.

Several games were forfeited to teams by the Umpires because the home club was on the job, but the action failed to move on at Thrasher Park in San Leandro. Umpire Manuel Perry declared a game forfeited to the Thrasher Park Stars because the Los Berillo Hatters Juniors failed to play in an appearance. At Fruitvale Depot the Florio & Figueiro team was on the job eleven strong, ready to tangle with the Fazlani & Co. team nine, but Manager Snoon of the Florio Figueiro could find only three of his men when Umpire Bethel called "play ball." After walking around for a half hour the referee, who had come to the Florio-Pagine boys.

At the Twenty-third Avenue levee the Western Electrics, leaders in the Western Division of the Class B, were beaten by the Rockwood Art Pottery by 5 to 0 score in the second inning when rain started.

Class "A" Leaders to Meet in National Next Sunday.

As all games in the class division of the leagues were postponed it is likely that the Arbitration Board will decide that all games of yesterday will be played the first Sunday following the date of the games on the schedule. There was a chance for a shake-up among the league leaders if the games were rescheduled yesterday, but now the fans are turning their backs on the Sunday combats, and if old Jupiter Pluvius can't stay away, the fans are going to see some of the class in the competition of the class A. A loss this time will be a good omen for the American Division there is no much promise of a shake-up next Sunday, unless a few surprises are in store. For all four games of that division second basemen will be the top rung of newcomers, but Simpson was so impressed with the work of the boys in the gymnasium that he gave him the sign of favor on the position and is willing to stake his reputation as a matchmaker that Trippy will make an immediate hit with the clientele.

Newcomer Said to Be a Hard Hitter.

Trippy is not strong on the clever stuff, but they say he can sock and it is the gent with the sock who gets by here. Holey will have quite an edge on cleavers, as Boche is one of the slick boys of the weight now performing here, but he has had to be careful of the Meno-Timpay right hand. Bert possesses a mean wallop in his left, but his right is said to be poison. If he defeats Holey there will be plenty of work for him, and the middleweights have proved the most popular class with the customers.

Another attractive bout on the next program is the Joe Roberts-Harold Emmal quarrel. Roberts has improved wonderfully in the past few months and has more than held his own with the best in the division. Joe is very fast on his feet and it required a whole lot of tricks since he started running up and down the coast boxing all comers. Emmal is a product of the Olympic Club and won the national championship on the coast. The Winged "O" organization and the P. A. A. hated to see Harold join the ranks of the little four-rounders but Emmal figured he could not afford to go into the same crop of amateur over and over again, so he decided to take a chance with the little medal hunters who entered him every year. Emmal did not show a great deal, notably because too much was expected of him. His admirers had the old stage-fright alibi to offer after the bout, but they have been doing something in that. If Emmal ticks Roberts he will have to be about 100 per cent better than he was the last time he started, for the tanky Alamedans are a hard nut to crack with a solid rock and he can box with the best of them.

WILL HAVE GREAT TEAM.

He needs only to get a firmly-wired orthodox backhand for voluntary give-up throwing away points and he can have a great team, and there is no one he need fear in a year's time. There have been some real battles on the first ten or twenty-first because Johnston and Tilden are him. Who else did, and who else had them? and Johnston when in their first matches?

Battling Ortega is going to be next year the greatest contests in the history of the game for the Davis cup if we can send four out of Patterson, Anderson, Brookes, O'Hara, Wood, Hayes and Tilden, and add back-hand, I hope. Clarence Todd and Maxwell Hardware at Durant baseball field.

HOW TO PLAY GOLF

by JESSE E. GUILFORD
AMATEUR GOLF CHAMPION OF THE UNITED STATES

The long game, while considered essential, is not in some respects necessary for winning of championship honors. It is pointed out by those who regard it as unessential that several of our champions have been experimenting with the short drive, straight down the fairway, more than ever when he had him in proximity. We never antedate the day when golf will be a cinch, but the day when golf will be a cinch is not far off. The long game is not necessarily the best, but the short drive, straight down the fairway, is more advantageous than the long drive, which will gradually increase as the ball goes on, and the short drive, which will permit a freer swing.

CULTIVATE WRIST ACTION.

Strong wrists are a great help to long driving, but those players lacking unusual strength in their wrists, who possess a natural grip, will find it easier to roll the ball over when he has him in proximity. We never antedate the day when golf will be a cinch, but the day when golf will be a cinch is not far off. The long game is not necessarily the best, but the short drive, straight down the fairway, is more advantageous than the long drive, which will gradually increase as the ball goes on, and the short drive, which will permit a freer swing.

While the long game is generally considered the best, the short drive, straight down the fairway, is more advantageous than the long drive, which will gradually increase as the ball goes on, and the short drive, which will permit a freer swing.

MYSTIC SHRINERS IMPERIAL POTENTATE AND MEMBERS OF PARTY VISIT OAKLAND

NOBLES GREETED AND TAKEN FOR TRIP OVER CITY

Plan for Hospitals for Treatment of Crippled Children Is Told.

Bringing a message that outlined in detail a nation-wide program for the establishment of free hospitals for the treatment and cure of crippled children, Ernest A. Cutts of Savannah, Ga., Imperial Potentate of the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and his retinue of distinguished Shrine nobility were the guests of Ahmes Temple yesterday.

Despite the disagreeable weather, which began during the early morning with a cold drizzle, and lasted throughout the day, Oakland's Shrinedom enthusiastically welcomed and paid homage to the visiting Nobles, who, after spending an entire day in the city, left late yesterday afternoon and arrived in Los Angeles this morning.

Out of the eight members comprising the Imperial party, five nobles, including the Imperial Potentate, are members of the committee in charge of arrangements for the Imperial Council to be held in San Francisco next June, and after completing their tour of the country in the interests of the Shrine conclave.

WELCOME TO OAKLAND.

Shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning the train bearing the visitors pulled into the Sixteenth-street depot and they were welcomed to Oakland by a number of prominent local Shriners.

The imperial party was made up, in addition to Cutts, of J. S. McCandless, deputy imperial potentate; Conrad Dykeman, chief rabbi of Brooklyn, N. Y.; Imperial Treasurer William S. Brown, Pittsburgh, Pa.; Imperial Recorder Benjamin W. Rowell, Boston, Mass.; Imperial Marshal Leo V. Youngsworth, Los Angeles; First Ceremonial Master Clarence Dunbar, Providence, R. I., and Esten A. Fletcher, imperial captain of the guard, Rochester, N. Y. In addition to the Imperial party, there were a number of other Shriners.

A group of members of the order from Ahmes Temple was on hand at the station to greet the visitors and escorted them to the Hotel Oakland, their headquarters for the day. This delegation was made up of Superior Judge Lincoln S. Church, associate Judge Lincoln S. Church, associate Judge Ahmes Temple, E. A. Forster, past potestate of Ahmes Temple; Judge J. J. Dunn, M. S. Stewart, Frank H. Haley, Dr. J. L. Pease, Dr. W. J. McCracken and others.

Imperial Potentate Cutts and his party were brought to the Hotel Oakland in automobiles and breakfast was served in the grill after the visitors had been presented to other members of Ahmes Temple. About 100 present and past officers and members of the temple attended the breakfast.

Bad weather threatened to interfere with the sightseeing program which had been arranged for the visitors, but the automobile tour of the luncheon which was held at 2 o'clock. He declared that it was an honor for Ahmes temple to entertain the Imperial potentate and his retinue and extended them the welcome of local Shrinedom. Cutts made a brief response to the welcome, and paid a tribute to the potentate, declaring that Church not only stood high in Shrinedom, but in the State as well.

An official welcome was extended to Cutts by Potestate of Ahmes Temple Judge Lincoln S. Church at the luncheon which was held at 2 o'clock. He declared that it was an honor for Ahmes temple to entertain the Imperial potentate and his retinue and extended them the welcome of local Shrinedom. Cutts made a brief response to the welcome, and paid a tribute to the potentate, declaring that Church not only stood high in Shrinedom, but in the State as well.

Following the luncheon an informal reception was held in honor of the visiting imperial potentate at Ahmes Temple Headquarters and was attended by hundreds of the temple's nobility and visiting nobles.

It was at the reception that Cutts delivered the message he brought to Oakland. He outlined the work being done by Shrine temples throughout the country in the establishment or treatment of poor crippled children, and commented on the Oakland temple for its efforts along this line.

"A greater work has never been undertaken by any fraternity in the history of the world," said the Imperial Potentate. "At present we have a sum of $1,000,000 a year which will be used for the erection of such hospitals throughout the country. Here little children who are cripples will be treated and cured."

"There are approximately 450,000 of those children in the United States who are unable to help themselves and who have to be dependent on some one to help them and give them an equal chance. These hospitals will be open to the crippled children of North America, including Canada, Mexico and Honolulu. The unfortunate children will be admitted to these institutions and treated under the orthopedic system and cured within seven or eight months, free."

Religious beliefs, creed, nationality or sex of the small patients will make no difference. Of the approximate 450,000 crippled children of the country 85 per cent have no means, and it is mainly for the benefit of these helpless ones that the institutions are being founded."

"This work," continued Cutts, "is not being done for glory, but for the good of humanity. It is a noble work."

HOSPITAL IN S. F.

The Imperial Potentate recently broke ground in Minneapolis for the erection of one of the hospitals. He said that the style of architecture of the buildings would receive scant attention, but great pains would be taken to see that everything was made homelike and comfortable for the child patients.

The site for the Pacific Coast hospital, which will be located in San Francisco, has been donated to the order by Islam Temple of that city, and according to Cutts, it is planned to have it in operation when the Imperial council convenes there next June in order that the Shriners may have a chance to learn first hand the great work that can be accomplished by this movement.

He paid a tribute to Ahmes Temple, which, he said, was working in close co-operation with Islam Temple in this work. There would be some 250,000 Shriners at the conclave, he said, and a special effort would be made to show them through the hospital, which has been made possible with the co-operation of the Shriners.

"It is a beautiful city, and the good people living here have every reason in the world to be proud of it. From your harbor on the south and west to the beautiful building of that great land in the University of California, in Berkeley, on the north, I never have seen a cluster of more beautiful city. It would seem to me that it has a great future, and is destined to become one of the industrial and commercial centers of the west."

An official welcome was extended to Cutts by Potestate of Ahmes Temple Judge Lincoln S. Church at the luncheon which was held at 2 o'clock. He declared that it was an honor for Ahmes temple to entertain the Imperial potentate and his retinue and extended them the welcome of local Shrinedom. Cutts made a brief response to the welcome, and paid a tribute to the potentate, declaring that Church not only stood high in Shrinedom, but in the State as well.

Following the luncheon an informal reception was held in honor of the visiting imperial potentate at Ahmes Temple Headquarters and was attended by hundreds of the temple's nobility and visiting nobles.

It was at the reception that Cutts delivered the message he brought to Oakland. He outlined the work being done by Shrine temples throughout the country in the establishment or treatment of poor crippled children, and commented on the Oakland temple for its efforts along this line.

"A greater work has never been undertaken by any fraternity in the history of the world," said the Imperial Potentate. "At present we have a sum of $1,000,000 a year which will be used for the erection of such hospitals throughout the country. Here little children who are cripples will be treated and cured."

"There are approximately 450,000 of those children in the United States who are unable to help themselves and who have to be dependent on some one to help them and give them an equal chance. These hospitals will be open to the crippled children of North America, including Canada, Mexico and Honolulu. The unfortunate children will be admitted to these institutions and treated under the orthopedic system and cured within seven or eight months, free."

Religious beliefs, creed, nationality or sex of the small patients will make no difference. Of the approximate 450,000 crippled children of the country 85 per cent have no means, and it is mainly for the benefit of these helpless ones that the institutions are being founded."

"This work," continued Cutts, "is not being done for glory, but for the good of humanity. It is a noble work."

HOSPITAL IN S. F.

The Imperial Potentate recently broke ground in Minneapolis for the erection of one of the hospitals. He said that the style of architecture of the buildings would receive scant attention, but great pains would be taken to see that everything was made homelike and comfortable for the child patients.

The site for the Pacific Coast hospital, which will be located in San Francisco, has been donated to the order by Islam Temple of that city, and according to Cutts, it is planned to have it in operation when the Imperial council convenes there next June in order that the Shriners may have a chance to learn first hand the great work that can be accomplished by this movement.

He paid a tribute to Ahmes Temple, which, he said, was working in close co-operation with Islam Temple in this work. There would be some 250,000 Shriners at the conclave, he said, and a special effort would be made to show them through the hospital, which has been made possible with the co-operation of the Shriners.

"It is a beautiful city, and the good people living here have every reason in the world to be proud of it. From your harbor on the south and west to the beautiful building of that great land in the University of California, in Berkeley, on the north, I never have seen a cluster of more beautiful city. It would seem to me that it has a great future, and is destined to become one of the industrial and commercial centers of the west."
